Peter Max (1937 -) is a German-born American Pop artist known for his distinctive psychedelic style that resonated with the countercultural movements of the 1960s and 70s. Max's art, filled with bright, acidic colors and kaleidoscopic compositions, reflected his interest in mysticism and space exploration and is often associated with the visual language of American pop culture. His subjects range from contemporary figures to scenes of the cosmos to American symbols, and his notable commissions have included official artwork for the Super Bowl and the World Cup. Despite controversies late in his career, Max's legacy endures, a technicolor testament to the power of art in shaping, and reflecting, the spirit of its time.

Artist Bio

"Romero Britto, founder of the Happy Art Movement, is an internationally renowned artist who has created an iconic visual language of happiness, fun, love, and hope all its own inspiring millions worldwide.

Brazilian-born and Miami-made, Romero has made it to the top and is considered one of the most famous and celebrated living visual artists in the globe. Britto's appreciation of the masters Pablo Picasso, Henry Matisse, Andy Warhol, Keith Haring, and Roy Lichtenstein influenced him to create a completely new artistic style by using vibrant, bold, and colorful patterns to reflect his optimistic view of the world around him.

His work has been exhibited in the most prestigious galleries and museums in over 120 countries, including the Carrousel Du Louvre and he was the first living visual artist to present his work at the Soumaya Museum. Romero Britto has also created innumerable public and private art installations, not to mention the largest in the history of London's Hyde Park. He did the opening of the Super Bowl XLI in collaboration with the Cirque Du Soleil, was the official artist for the 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa, ambassador to the 2014 FIFA World Cup Brazil, honorary torch bearer and ambassador for the Rio 2016 Olympic Games."
